

A night in the abandoned motel

One day Sally and her four friends decided to go on a little trip. The weather was nice and it seemed that nothing could go wrong. That route was supposed to take 3 hours but Fred who was behind the wheel thought it would be a good idea to take a shorter route. Eventually they ended up in the middle of forest because of the car which had broken down. They were lost, evening was approaching and the nights there were cold. First, they were trying to find their way out of the forest, but it was pointless. Teenagers decided to find a place where they could stay overnight. After 20 minutes they saw an old Motel.

Although the motel was overgrown and the windows were broken call Mom it was the best option. The inside didn't look that bad. There were few usable rooms. Because the rest of the rooms were locked, they decided that every one of them would sleep in a different room. The next day was pretty normal.

It was quiet and sunny. Justin was the first one to wake up, so he went and woke up the others. When he knocked on Sally's door no one answered so he opened the door but to his surprise she wasn't there. He told the rest and they went to look for her. The hours went by and there was no sight of the girl.

Another one to disappear was Sally's best friend Amanda. No one knew what was going on. At first, they thought the girls were just pulling their legs and eventually they would show up, but nothing like that ever happened. The night came and by the time other two people had gone missing. The only one who didn't, was scared was Kate but she didn't know that. When she woke up she saw that she was completely alone. Kate knew she has to run away from there or she will go missing too. But as soon as she was approaching the exit everything went black. "And that's how their little trip ended. I must admit that my plant went terribly amazing. The one thing that you need to know is that they were delicious the carnival cannibal."
