

I just want to play

It was a Friday evening. Five teenagers Mia, Alex, Chloe, Justin and Erwin wanted to spend this evening together and have fun. Mia's parents weren't at home for a week so she invited the rest of the group. They called their older friend Mason and asked him if he could buy them some alcohol and cigarettes. He agreed. When they arrived at Mia's they were really having fun. The music was playing, the girls were dancing, and the boys were smoking cigarettes. When the third bottle of vodka ended Justin said that he's going to to spew up so he run to the toilet. When he finally stopped he stood up looked at the mirror and screamed. He saw such an ugly creature. It was like a human but not normal human. It was terrifying. He turned back and there wasn't anything. Alex came to see what's going on and why Justin screamed, so he opened the door and so a frightened Justin, but only him, no creepy creatures. He said that was only in his head cuz he was drunk. They were going back to others and suddenly they heard Chloe screaming. When they went to the living room they saw Mia flying. She was like possessed by something. It was inside her and it was using her to talk with us. It's sad: I just want to play, and after these words he like broke Mia's neck being inside her and the body fell on the floor. Her eyes were bleeding, Chloe started to cry, they ran to the front door as fast as they could. Justin, Alex and Chloe went out but before Erwin got out the door closed. He didn't know what to do, he was trying to open the door but he couldn't it was like someone was holding them. He ran to the kitchen, the light was turning on and off, off, on, off. Suddenly like some bad power was in his body, but not in mind he was aware what was happening. This demon made him take the knife and stick it into his stomach. He fell on the floor and these creature looked in his eyes and said "peekaboo". Chloe had her phone in the back pocket so they called the cops. When they hurt of it they thought that those teenagers were on drugs or something, but when they went into the house they couldn't believe what they saw. They immediately called The Church which was working with Ed and Lorraine Warrens, they were like exorcists, they were finding demons and helping people with it. They called this freaking demon and helped Mia's parents. After this night Chloe Went Psycho and ended up in psychiatrist hospital. Alex tried to leave normal life but it wasn't that easy, he had nightmares every night, he was seeing creepy things and hearing voices, he couldn't stand it and committed suicide. Justin after this decided that he wanted to be like Ed Warren and help people having problems with it, he was studying about all that energy and demons possessing and in the end he had even worked with Warrens. He was proud that he could avenge his friends.
